

Pastor Will Sohnchen
Sermon Outline - September 5, 2010
Wise up – Part 6
“The Words of the Wise”

The writers of Proverbs constantly urge us to resist the temptation to think that because our words are invisible they are without consequence. Words have eternal impact, both on our own lives and also on the lives of those around us.

Jesus re-emphasized this truth in Matthew 12:36-37.

The Power of our Words:

Words have the power to _____

Proverbs 18: 20-21

Words have the power to _____

Proverbs 12:18

My words have the power to _____

Proverbs 18:8

Words have the power to shape _____

Proverbs 10:21

The effects of our words _____

Proverbs 16:27

A Word to the Wise about How to Speak:

Words should be _____

Proverbs 16:13

Words should be _____

Proverbs 17:28

Words should be _____

Proverbs 17:27 & 15:1

Words should be _____

Proverbs 15:3

How to make your words count:

Think before you _____

Proverbs 15:28

Make your words _____

Psalms 141:3

Remember your words will never _____

Matthew 12:34-35

“May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.”

Psalm 19:14